

November 2010

Dear Mr. Geminder,

My name is Miriam Ibarra, I am a History teacher from Baja California, México. We went to visit the L.A. Holocaust museum on November last year, and we took some pictures with you. I apologize because I had forgotten to send you the pictures, as I told you.

But here they are. I hope you like them and again I want to thank you the time and dedication to this purpose: never forget the Holocaust.

Thanks!

I hope to come back soon.

Miriam Ibarra

ADL Young Leaders Visit Museum of the Holocaust

Date: March 2, 2011

Glass Leadership Institute Participants with Child Survivor Robert Geminder

Young professionals who are part of the Glass Leadership Institute in both the Los Angeles and San Diego regions joined together to visit the new Los Angeles Museum of the Holocaust on February 27. The event started with a docent presenting information about the story of the museum, its architect (a former Glass graduate) and future plans for the children's memorial.

The group was introduced to the artist and museum staff person who assembled and mounted a temporary exhibit comprised of pictures of some of the 10,000 children who escaped on the Kindertransport. Regional Director Amanda Susskind pointed out the picture of her father, who escaped from Prague in August of 1939.

The participants toured the entire museum with audio-guides that provided an overview of the museum's Holocaust-era artifacts and exhibits. Following the tour, the group had a discussion with a Holocaust survivor and learned about ADL's Holocaust Education programs and resources.
